

Edge Plus 'The SMART Recipe'
Qualifying Exam MCQ – Part I Preparation Course
The Pharmacy Examination Board of Canada - PEBC
Website Course Form

Course Hours:

- Total hours: 60-65 hours via webinar
- Duration: 5-6 hours /class
- Frequency: Twice weekly
- Tutors: Edge Plus licensed pharmacists team

Prerequisites:

- Successfully cleared the Canadian Board Evaluation Exam (EE)
- Both MCQ & OSCE exams could be written simultaneously.
- Candidates who have previously been unsuccessful on Part II (OSCE) will be required to have already passed Part I (MCQ) before re-attempting the OSCE exam. Please check PEBC website for all details <https://www.pebc.ca>

Course Description:

'The SMART Recipe' guides candidates to the best robust clinical decision-making process via providing unbiased, evidence-based, practical information on hundreds of medical conditions, focusing on different therapeutic choices - either pharmacological or non-pharmacological.

The course thoroughly addresses the ethical, legal and professional responsibilities and different principles of pharmacy management, to ensure safe, effective and efficient patient care.

Learning Outcomes:

- Establish the legal requirements of practice demonstrate professionalism and uphold professional standards of practice and codes of ethics & policies.
- Apply the core knowledge and professional judgment required to provide pharmaceutical care and address the patient's health needs in collaboration with other health professionals (HCPs).
- Properly evaluate patient data, apply core knowledge, skills and professional judgment to provide pharmaceutical care
- Design, assess and modify patient pharmacotherapy based on scientific evidences to ensure effective and safe patient care.

- Acquire knowledge, skills and abilities covering the competencies to practice pharmacy safely and effectively in an "entry level" pharmacist position in Canada.
- Develop the basic pharmacological knowledge of the key therapeutic areas
- Master the basic values that articulate the ethical foundations to provide effective patient care while getting acquainted with the different provincial & federal pharmacy regulations in Canada.

"The SMART Recipe" is a comprehensive course that prepare the mindset of candidate to the final stage of the PEBC examinations process i.e. OSCE

Course Dates:

Mid Feb 2020 for the May 2020 exam, exact date to be communicated

Deadline for Registration:

2 weeks prior to the start date of the course

Terms and conditions:

- Fees should be paid in total to the registrar office in O6U campus, before the course starting date.
- Fees include the program lectures and any course related electronic handouts
- A minimum of 10 registered students/class are required to run this program
- O6U-Edge Plus Inc. keep their rights to cancel any class, if the minimum number of students are not reached per class and to possibly assign the candidates to the next available class, as agreed
- A very competitive program priced at 13'500 EGP ONLY, which includes a 25% special discount when booked through O6U. Can be paid on 2 installments
LIMITED TIME OFFER!